

TALENTED AMATEUR PLAYERS ENLISTED IN VARIOUS ENTERTAINMENTS FOR CHARITY

MISS
BEATTIE
C. FAIRCHILD

PHOTO BY STEINBERG STUDIO

MISS BEATRICE C. FAIRCHILD

THREE hundred members, with as many guests, filled the Astor gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria at the last Thursday musical morning of the Harlem Philharmonic Society, which was followed by a breakfast.

Mme. Teyte, soprano, of the Philadelphia-Chicago opera company, was the soloist, singing songs by French, English and American composers. Mr. Charles Work was the accompanist.

The room was decorated in green and white, with variations and roses, and the table of the president, Mrs. Hattie Ransom, was ornamented with American Beauty roses, violets and bride roses. Mrs. Ransom was assisted in receiving the guests by the Board of Directors and the chairman of the standing committees. They included Mrs. William H. Laird, first vice president; Mrs. Henry Winter Davis, second vice president; Mrs. Herman W. Booth, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Deacon, recording secretary; Mrs. Julian Nunes Henriques, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Littlefield, one time president; Mrs. Thomas Jackson, George W. East, Hamilton Higgins, Maurice E. Burnton, Frank O. Evans, D. Phoenix Ingraham, Henry Daeniker, Ashby Lee Steider, Frederick A. Cole, Solomon Le Pavre Day, George E. Stone, William W. White, H. B. Harding, William Douglas May, Frederick Altherton Duneka, J. J. Blodgett, Orlan B. Smith, Arthur A. Stillwell, A. D. Rockwell, William P. Horton, Marjorie A. Conover, Judson Grenouel Wells and William W. Glendinning.

Mrs. Judson Grenouel Wells was chairman of the Entertainment Committee and Mrs. Marjorie Conover headed the Committee of Arrangements. Acting as ushers were Misses Beattie Braxmar, Helen Palmer, Elsie Behning and Dora Behning. They carried bouquets of pink roses.

Guests at the president's table were Mrs. William H. Barron, Mrs. Edward J. Palmer, Mrs. Charles F. Rand, Mrs. Herbert M. Hyde, Mrs. George Harvey, Mrs. Horace Cander, Mrs. Frank Blodgett, Mrs. William H. Chapman, Mrs. H. Rose, Mrs. Henry Irwin, Mrs. J. Edward Martin, Mrs. J. C. Watson, Mrs. George Schreiner and Miss Edwards.

Other members and guests seated at small tables were: Mrs. M. E. Burton, W. D. May, Charles H. Roesser, William D. May, Jr., Charles Olden, John Jordan, Adolph Riesenberg, William Wallace White, C. E. Steele, A. L. Blodgett, H. E. Fountain, H. L. Ford, H. H. Hamilton, Goldschmidt, G. P. Hotelling, James Veltch, Jr., J. Jenkins, H. P. Hodson, E. F. Dickinson, Samuel O. Esterbrook, Nohls McConnell, E. W. Burdout, J. W. Bell, H. P. Nichols, Will Ingram, I. F. Blauvelt, Henry Parmies, Ernest Pflueger, H. Powell, H. Lockwood, F. O. Hall, A. Lockwood, W. J. Twomey, Otto Livingston, Walter Blakely, J. F. Foster, Montgomery La Roche, J. D. Smith, E. Simmer, G. Taylor, H. Joraleman, A. A. Bevin, Victor D. Bevin, Warren Pina, Charles Cranville, Charles Johnson, D. E. Ayers, C. A. Kolsch, C. J. Brown, G. W. Butte, J. A. Collette, Frank Burke, Frank Peiser, Fred R. Lee, B. Ellmore, Harry Knibbs, S. S. Dunham, R. Comfort, S. C. Ford, Marshall Emery, M. McCordie, Hilda Kohler, Horace Greely Hart, M. G. Wright, G. C. Halstead, J. Mills, E. V. Smith, Robert Adams, E. V. D. H. Koch, G. W. Baker, J. H. Randall, J. N. Jones, Jr., William Collins, George W. Dunn, C. A. Collins, Jr., V. H. Ketcham, M. Karaghianian, C. W. Wolfe, M. M. Hewett, W. H. Swan, Frank Wise, J. N. Cunningham, Sheppard Knapp, C. G. Hodge, Harry A. Westcott and D. E. Ford. Misses Reynolds, Haight, Moore, Nelson, Russell, Hoyt, Ogden, Van Sanford, Bertine, Hand, Collins, Edith Leonard, Cherubius, Daisy Charles, Bates, Valerie Storms, Parker, Lockwood, Sykes, Van Tine and Florence May.

JANUARY 28 has been the date of its organization, the Knickerbocker Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution observed the fifteenth anniversary with a luncheon for members under the direction of the women of Auxiliary No. 1, of which Mrs. Reed Stow is chairman. Luncheon was served at small round tables, on which were artistic name cards and bouquets of flowers, donated by Mrs. Emerson McMillin. More than two hundred women took part in the games.

Mrs. Stow was assisted in the arrangements by Mrs. James G. Shaw, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Henry Reed, secretary, and Misses Clarence Burns, Charles E. Sprague, John Francis Tawger, Charles O. Mass, R. H. Stearns, Benjamin Lillard, Theodore Connolly, J. B. Cox, J. M. Duncan, Amanda Lauterbach, O. Callings, J. N. Love, A. H. Gleason, L. de Camp, B. S. Weeks, G. L. Fisher and J. H. Bird.

Associate Alumnae of Normal College will hold their annual breakfast in the Hotel Astor on February 1. The speakers will be Dr. George S. Davis, Dr. Thomas Hunter, Mrs. William C. Hinchman, Mrs. Philip Carpenter and Mrs. Dorothy Dix. Officers of the association are Mrs. Samuel J. Krupper, president; Mrs. A. Stewart Holt, treasurer; Miss Jane G. Carter, corresponding secretary, and Miss Eva G. Wood, recording secretary.

A eucure party and reception will be given by the members of the Women's Catholic Benevolent Association in the Central Casino, 14th street and Macomb's road, on Tuesday evening. The proceeds will be added to the benevolent fund. Tickets may be obtained from Miss Anna Gahagan, of No. 115 West 15th street. The games will be followed by general dancing.

York, Mrs. John Francis Tawger president, will be held in the Hotel Astor on Wednesday afternoon.

An address on "Municipal House-keeping," by the Rev. Caroline Bartlett Crane, of Kalamazoo, Mich., and one on "The New Jersey Housekeeping Experiment," by Mrs. Frank A. Patterson, will be given under the auspices of the New York League of Unitarian Women on Friday morning in the Church of the Saviour.

KING GEORGE V. Chapter of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, will give an entertainment for the benefit of its philanthropic fund tomorrow evening in the home of the residents Mrs. Augustus J. Wilson, of No. 618 West 13th street. The programme will be—

Merry England—Minuet, Miss Margaret Crawford and Mr. Murray Anderson; song, Miss Florence Bucklin Scott, and gaviote, Miss Katherine Noyes.

Old Ireland—Irish song (Tom Moore), Mrs. John Murray Anderson, and Irish jig, Miss Louise Kelly.

Bonnie Scotland—Impersonation of Harry Lauder, Mr. D. Scott Chisholm, and Highland fling, Miss Crawford. Bagpipe accompaniment by Mr. D. Scott Chisholm.

Brave Little Valer—Corset solo, "March of the Men of Harlech," Mr. Edward Elmore, and dance, "Jennie Jones," Miss Mary Mitchell.

Young America—Dance, by Two Little Americans, and song, Miss Bucklin Scott. Ode, "The Goddess of Empire," spoken by Miss Nina McMillin.

"Song of Empire," Mr. Murray Anderson.

Princess Louise Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, Mrs. J. Elliott Langstaff, president, will give a luncheon in the ballroom of the Plaza on February 8. The proceeds will be devoted to a fund for a home in this city for aged British men and women.

Among the patrons and patronesses are the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, Bishop Courtney, the Rev. and Mrs. John Mockridge, the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Judge, Mrs. J. Jordan Harriman, Mrs. Valerine Schuyler, Mrs. Robert L. Beech, and Mrs. J. Elliott Langstaff. British folk songs will be sung by Miss Louise Hepp, soprano; Mr. Charles Kittell, tenor, and the Misses Fuller, who will appear in early Victorian costumes.

Future meetings of the bridge and eucure series for the benefit of the philanthropic fund of the National Society of New England Women will be held in the home of the women interested. Last Friday's meeting, beginning the second series, was held in the home of Mrs. Charles Gilmore Karley, of No. 133 West Eighty-first street. The next on February 5, will be in the home of Mrs. J. Shady, of No. 264 West Ninety-third street. The series is under the chairmanship of Mrs. L. Frank Barry, of the Hotel Endicott.

REHEARSALS are being held by members of the younger set who will take part in the amateur performance of the opera "Trial by Jury," by Gilbert and Sullivan, in the Hotel Astor on Tuesday afternoon and evening for the benefit of the St. Mary's Sanatorium under the auspices of Auxiliaries Nos. 12 and 11. Mr. Manuel Klein is directing the study of the opera, as well as the fancy dances and tableaux.

Some of those interested in the performance are Misses Edith Kankel, J. Nordlinger and Beatrice Simon, Misses Henry Bloch, Joseph Edenberg, J. G. Kugelman, Benno Neuberger and Laurent Oppenheim. Among the patronesses are Misses E. J. King, Jr.; Charles Blum, A. E. Goodhart, Daniel Guggenheim and Felix M. Warburg and Lady Henry.

Tickets and boxes may be obtained from Mrs. Benjamin Stern, of No. 643 Fifth avenue.

A bridge party for the benefit of the Washington Heights Day Nursery was held in the Hotel St. Andrew on Thursday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. George Nash, president of the nursery. Mrs. Henry G. Romine was chairman of the committee of arrangements.

A PLAYLET written by one of the members of the Woman's Forum and named "The Inscrutables" is being rehearsed as a feature of the entertainment to be given by the forum in the Berkeley Lyceum on February 13. The cast will include Misses Florence Fletcher, Louise W. Gay, Edward W. Hooks, Emma H. Noyes, John Francis Tawger, Eva McDonald, Valeria, Austin N. Palmer, and Misses Susan Haring and Helen Varick Boswell. Miss Alice Ralph, soprano; Mrs. William Mason Bennett, pianist; and Miss Margaret Crawford and Miss Katherine N. Noyes, fancy dancers, will take part.

The proceeds will be devoted to the educational fund of the forum. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Charles D. Hirt, of No. 129 West 10th street.

MORE money will be added to the treasury of the Little Mother Aid Association as a result of a luncheon and bridge party given in the Sherman Square Hotel on Wednesday afternoon being arranged for the benefit of the Gaelic League on February 20.

Miss Beattie S. Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Mitchell, of No. 306 West Eighty-sixth street, will sing one of the principal parts in the opera, "Kiss Karl of Kronstadt," to be given for charity by amateurs at the Plaza to-morrow and on Wednesday evening.

Miss Beatrice C. Fairchild, of No. 35 East 126th street, will give a series of recitations at her home next month. A card party for charity is also being arranged for the latter part of the month.

Mrs. John Ainsworth Kelly gave a bridge and eucure party in aid of the work of the International Pure Milk League, Mrs. Edward W. Hook, president, at her home, No. 53 Riverside Drive, on Wednesday afternoon.

Much interest is being shown by the members of St. Joseph's Alumnae in their annual theatre party and all are urging their friends to attend the benefit performance on Tuesday evening, February 6, in the Belasco Theatre, where Mr. David Warfield appears in "The Return of Peter Grimm."

The proceeds are to be applied to the building fund of the new Brentwood chapel. Tickets may be purchased at the home of the president, Mrs. Robert R. Coster, of No. 34 West Ninety-fourth street.

A new feature of the exercises at meetings of the Society for Political Study is a parliamentary drill, which was begun at Tuesday's session in the Hotel Astor by Mrs. Mortimer M. Menken, the president. A paper on "The Educational System of the Twentieth Century" was read by Mrs. Jeanne de la M. Lester. Miss Phoebe Conklin spoke on "Municipal Phases" as one of the current events.

Other officers of the society are Mrs. Noble McConnell, first vice president; Mrs. J. Hodges Crowell, second vice president; Mrs. Gustav Radtke, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank M. Cronin, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Mary E. Allaire, treasurer.

Representatives of clubs interested in the study of the theatre and kindred topics met in the Hotel Astor yesterday to form a congress of such clubs according to ideas formulated by Mrs. Belle de Rivera, president of the New York Theatre Club. Mrs. de Rivera is desirous of making the congress a national body and has invited clubs in various States to join the movement.

Members of the club to the number of one hundred and fifty attended the matinee performance of "The Garden of Allah" on Wednesday. The play will be discussed at the meeting on February 6.

Musical dancing by Countess Thamar de Swirsky entertained the members of the Drawing Room Club, of which Mrs. Harry Norton Marvin is president, in the Waldorf-Astoria on Wednesday evening. Countess de Swirsky gave a gypsy dance to music by Brahms and Greek dances to music by Massenet, Gounod and Schumann. She ended the programme with piano solos by Chopin. A supper was served and general dancing followed.

Among Mrs. Marvin's guests were Prince and Princess Troubetzkoy, of Paris; Mrs. John Miller Horton, of Buffalo, and Francis Homer, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Seymour Haynes, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., who before her recent marriage was Mrs. Emma Charles Greene, is visiting friends in Chelsea place.

WOMEN PLAY BRIDGE AT PINEHURST, N. C.

PINEHURST, N. C., Saturday. MIDWINTER activities have rounded out a busy and merry week, dinners, bridge and dancing filling the calendar.

On Monday bridge for the benefit of the Village Club fund was played in the villa of Mrs. Tyler L. Redfield, of Greenwich; Miss Gwendolyn Cummings, of Baltimore; and Mrs. Herbert L. Johnson, of Worcester, assisting the hostess. Mrs. C. A. Sincistr, of Boston, had a bridge after a dinner at Red Gables, covers being laid for fourteen, and Mrs. Justus Kendall, of Lewiston, gave a bridge party for Mrs. Montgomery A. Crockett, of Bedford City, Va. Other parties were given by Mrs. Irving S. Robinson, of Rochester, and Miss Lucy Priest, of Newcastle.

There was a supper for the advertising golfers and their wives at the Carolina, given by Mr. Leonard Tuffin. Covers were laid for one hundred and fifty, and there were songs and toasts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Phillips entertained the Near Golfers Association. The table was decorated with cut flowers and souvenirs were fac simile portraits of portraiture containing liquors. The guests were—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ridgway, Messrs. Lawrence Abbott, N. T. Pulster and A. D. Clements, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morris, of Philadelphia; Messrs. W. H. Childs and A. W. Erickson, of Brooklyn; Messrs. E. J. Steer and J. C. Platt, of Montclair, and Mr. R. W. Potter, of Erie.

Of arrivals there have been many, among them being the Secretary of the International Golf Association, Mr. Fisher, and Mr. John Philip Sousa, all here for their usual visits.

Others here are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Doubleday, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Linsky, Mr. and Mrs. Bartley R. Merwin, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Hodgman, Mrs. William H. Moon, Mr. William H. Moon, Jr., Miss Margaret Franklin, Miss M. F. Abbott and Mr. H. H. Buckley, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Elmore F. Elmore, of Platte; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. De Launier, of Hudson; Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Everett, of Newark; Mrs. F. H. Cray, of Cranford; Mrs. Katherine Dear, of Jersey City; Mr. and Mrs. G. La Huc Masters, of East Orange; Mrs. G. Van Allen and Mrs. E. M. Van Allen, of Jamaica.

THREE PRIVATE CARS AT BELLEAIR, FLA.

BELLEAIR, Fla., Saturday. BELLEAIR is a golf course of the Hotel Belview is a spur of railroad track, and on this is a little settlement of private cars. It is near the first tee. The last car to arrive was that of Mr. F. A. Vanderbilt, president of the National City Bank, in New York. The other cars are owned by Mr. W. D. Trump, of Detroit, and Mr. N. D. Maher, of Norfolk, Va. Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Maher are accompanied by their families and are living at the hotel. Mr. Trump has a party in his car.

Several golf tournaments for women probably will be announced soon. Practically all the visitors at the Belview spend a part of each day on the golf course, although with the return of clear weather the automobile service maintained by the hotel has been constantly in demand.

Among the recent arrivals here are Colonel and Mrs. A. B. Hilton, Mr. T. J. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Reed, Miss A. A. Reed, New York; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Allen, Miss S. Allen, Moorestown, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bradley, Mrs. M. B. Caves and Miss C. B. Chapman, Montclair, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Thiers, Kenosha, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Beldier, Lake Geneva, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Ross Campbell, Miss Gladys Campbell, Mrs. E. Campbell, Philadelphia; Professor and Mrs. W. Hendrickson, Annapolis, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Goodrich, St. Louis; Dr. W. L. Pyle, Philadelphia; Dr. and Mrs. G. W. McDonald, St. Paul, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. P. Blatchford and Miss Blatchford, Chicago.

VISITORS AT SEA BREEZE, FLA.

SEA BREEZE, Fla., Saturday. RECENT arrivals at the Hotel Clarendon are Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reids, Mr. Richard Stahl, New York; Mrs. A. A. Hyde, Mr. E. B. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Worthington, Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Telfair W. Marriott, Miss Mary G. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell, Miss May T. Bell, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Andrew C. Mudge, Mrs. Gardiner W. Bulard, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Nathan D. Bill, Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shover, Miss Mary D. Shover, Boston, N. J.; Mrs. C. L. Nelson, Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Falls, Mr. J. W. Falls, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. G. M. Davis, Mrs. E. W. Andrews, Mrs. Harold S. Cook, Miss Margaret Cook and Mrs. N. O. Gutman, Chicago, Ill.

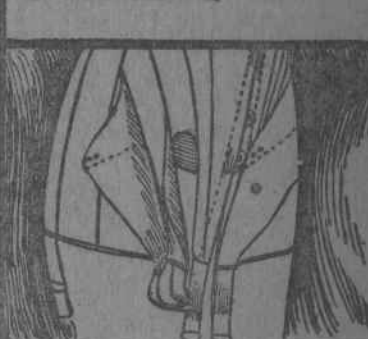

OUR LATEST TRIUMPH

Nemo

AUTO-MASSAGE SELF-REDUCING CORSETS

This Corset not only makes you LOOK SMALLER, but actually drives away the fat, so that you ARE SMALLER.

This is the corset sensation of the season. Like all Nemos, it has "made good," and is a boon to every stout woman who wants to LOOK SLIM— and BE more slender.

Two models:

No. 353 low bust } $3.50
No. 354 medium }

OTHER NEMOS A Fit for Every Figure $3.00, $4.00 & $5.00

NEMO CORSETS have become the WORLD'S STANDARD because they EXCEL ALL OTHERS in style, fit, comfort and durability. Millions of Nemo wearers know that this is true.

PLEASE REMEMBER: The hundred or more Nemo inventions include several improved corset FABRICS as well as special shapes, features and functions. All imitations of Nemo Corsets are failures, because no other maker can use the patented Nemo devices and fabrics WHICH GIVE NEMO CORSETS THEIR GREAT SUPERIORITY.

No dealer of intelligence will try to sell you something "just as good as the Nemo" for any reason except that the imitation yields him a larger profit—this at YOUR expense.

In Good Stores Everywhere. KOPS BROS., Mfrs., New York

DRY GOODS, & C.

DRY GOODS, & C.

DRY GOODS, & C.

506 Fifth Avenue

A. Simonson.

NEAR 42 STREET New York City

Naturally-Wavy Hair of Silken Texture

Fashioned on city forms into Switches, Transformations, Pompadours, Wigs, Ondulations and other coiffure accessories.

In all rare tints from golden blondes to

Pure White, Silver Gray and Iron Gray Hair

Hair of quality in distinctively designed coiffures such as "La Felice" or "Marie Antoinette, Brisee."

My personal supervision and "Fifty-two Years of Success" assures a perfect match in all orders.

A visit to study our original styles entails no obligation to buy.

A Request brings a beautiful Booklet of Fashionable Hairdressings.

A Beautifying Department, in charge of a Hairdresser-Surgeon (M. D.), Facial or surgical operations skillfully conducted. A-200, secret process—safe and painless.

MANICURING, HAIR DRESSING, SCALP TREATMENT, HAIR REMOVAL, FACIAL MASSAGING.

BY EXPERTS ONLY.

More money will be added to the treasury of the Little Mother Aid Association as a result of a luncheon and bridge party given in the Sherman Square Hotel on Wednesday afternoon